

obituary

Main obit page

ABOUT US/HELP
 ARCHIVES
 BUSINESS
 CLASSIFIEDS
 COMMUNITY
 DISCUSSION
 ENTERTAINMENT
 LIFESTYLES
 MARKETPLACE
 NEWS
 -Columbine
 -Columnists
 -JonBenet Ramsey
 -Legislature
 -National News
 -Obituaries
 -Politics
 -Stadium
 -World News
 -Y2K
 OPINION
 PROMOTIONS
 SPORTS
 WEATHER
 DPO MAIN

SEARCH DPO

Donald L. Green

Medical salesman, 57

Donald L. Green of Parker, a medical equipment salesman, died May 18. He was 57.

Graveside services were May 24 at Fort Logan National Cemetery.

He was born Aug. 17, 1942, in Dallas. He served in the Air Force from 1960 to 1962. On Oct. 9, 1964, he married Beverly E. Buster in Houston.

Green was a medical equipment salesman for 35 years. He was a member of the National Rifle Association. His interests included powerboating.

He is survived by his wife; a son, Don Jr., Littleton; a daughter, April M. Burgess, Highlands Ranch; his father, Leon, Dallas; three brothers, Gary, Plano, Texas, Scott, Keller, Texas, and Leon III, New York City; two sisters, Cathy Young, Sugar Land, Texas, and Carrie Varel, Dallas; and a granddaughter.

Posted 31-May-00

Obituaries are written by Denver Post staff members based on information provided by mortuaries and/or family members or friends. Obituary information may be sent to Newsroom, The Denver Post, 1560 Broadway, Denver, Colorado 80202. Please write the word Obituary on the envelope.

DPO from A-Z 